

M'KINLEY TELLS ABOUT TAFT CAMPAIGN EXPENSES

STATES TO COMMITTEE THAT $265,000 WAS SPENT IN RENOMINATING THE PRESIDENT

Denies Any Improper Use of Money and Affirms
Expenses Were Five Times Greater
Than Estimated—Taft Family Contributed
$150,000—Roosevelt's Contest Manager
Tells of $25,000 to $30,000 Spent For Colonel in the South

Washington, Oct. 8.—The sum of $265,000 collected and spent in the campaign for President Taft's renomination through his Washington headquarters was partially accounted for today by Representative W. B. McKinley of Illinois, the president's campaign manager, in his testimony before the senate investigating committee.

Mr. McKinley said the "Taft family" comprising Charles P. Taft, Henry W. Taft and Horace Taft, brothers of the president, gave $150,000. The campaign, he declared, cost five times what was anticipated.

"When we started out we expected to spend about $50,000," he told the committee.

List of Contributors.
The other chief contributors to the Taft fund, with their respective amounts as given by McKinley, were: John Hays Hammond, $25,000; Andrew Carnegie, $25,000; E. T. Stotsbury, Philadelphia, $25,000; "Mr. Kelsey" and "Mr. Patton" of New York, described as "friends of president", $12,000; Richard Kerns, St. Louis, ambassador to Austria-Hungary, $5,000; Secretary Knox, $5,000; Attorney Gen. Wickersham, $5,000; Former Sen. Nathan B. Scott, $1,000; A. C. James, $1,000.

Mr. McKinley's records were read from small pencilled memorandums which he dug out of his trousers pocket. He told the committee they were all he had to show for the handling of the big fund, except books kept in the headquarters that covered $134,000 spent directly for ordinary campaign purposes. Mr. McKinley declared his memory was not good enough to recall all the purposes for which money went out. "I always thought I had a good memory until I got into that mix-up," he explained, "but I saw a new man every five minutes in that whirl."

Mr. McKinley said he did not know the total amount that had been spent for president in the entire campaign.

Figures by States.
Mr. McKinley, though sharply questioned by a member of the committee today could give no information as to the Taft funds raised in the different states. He declared he did not even know the names of men in charge of affairs in many states. The contributions to state campaigns by the Taft national headquarters were given as follows:

West Virginia	8,000
Maryland	10,000 to 12,000
Ohio	20,000
Illinois	10,000
Maine	3,000
Texas	5,000
Indiana	1,000
Iowa	5,000
Kansas	5,000
Kentucky	3,000

Mr. McKinley and Ormsby McHarg, the latter contest manager for Col. Roosevelt in the primary fight, held the witness stand throughout the afternoon. Mr. McHarg accounted for the expenditure of $25,000 or $30,000 by the Roosevelt committee in the southern states where contests were brought. He denied that any money had been spent to influence delegates or that he knew of the use of any money in this way either before or at the Chicago convention.

Paid Delegates' Expenses.
Mr. McKinley admitted freely that the Taft campaign committee had paid the expenses of delegates to the Chicago convention, a procedure that both he and Mr. McHarg said had been a "long standing custom."

"Do you know anything of the use of money at the Chicago convention to change delegates?" asked Chairman Clapp.

"Nothing I would want to swear to," said Mr. McKinley smiling. "I have kept out of the Annapolis club thus far and I guess I will remain out."

Chairman Clapp asked both Mr. McHarg and McKinley if they knew of an alleged "underwriting" of the Roosevelt campaign by men who were said to have pledged $2,000,000 or $3,000,000 to secure Col. Roosevelt's nomination.

"It is an absurd yarn," declared Mr. McHarg. "I would have heard of such a thing if it were true and I consider such a story absolutely absurd."

Mr. McKinley later answering the same question said:

MARSHALL DIGS UP OLD STORY

SAYS ROOSEVELT WAS IN-ELIGIBLE TO GOVERNORSHIP OF NEW YORK.

Quotes From Platt's Autobiography
and Says He Will Apologize If Roosevelt Will Say Statement Is Untrue.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Oct. 8.—In his speech here tonight Governor Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana, Democratic vice-presidential candidate, declared that when Theodore Roosevelt, the Progressive presidential candidate was elected governor of New York he was ineligible for the office. The governor said it had never been denied that when Roosevelt was elected he was not a taxpayer of the state having sworn off his taxes while assistant secretary of the navy.

Governor Marshall arrived here from Clinton, where he spoke in the afternoon. Because of wet weather he was compelled to speak indoors instead of in the park as intended. At Cedar Rapids he spoke in large city auditorium.

Mentions Roosevelt's Statement.
In his speech he said in part:

"The Progressive candidate for president of the United States does not even now claim he will totally divorce himself from the initial influences in American politics. Upon the contrary, he says he will consult with anybody that wants to consult with him and then, he will treat them as in his judgment seems right and proper."

"It is well for us to inquire what that treatment has been in the past that we may determine what he thinks is right and proper treatment of those influences in our politics. In Senator Platt's autobiography, as published in a magazine recently it is distinctly stated that in 1897, when Mr. Roosevelt was assistant secretary of the navy, he had sworn off his taxes in New York on the ground that he was a resident of the District of Columbia and therefore ineligible for the governorship of New York state."

Was Ready to Withdraw.
"Mr. Platt says he called a meeting; that Elihu Root, was present and so was Mr. Roosevelt. That Mr. Roosevelt said he would not remain in the fight and that he must withdraw from the race. Notwithstanding this at the instance of Mr. Platt, when whom there never was a treaty boss in America, and at the instance of Elihu Root, he was nominated and elected."

HAVE INJUNCTION PROCEEDINGS BEGUN

Effort is Made to Restrain Officers of M. W. A. From Submitting Question.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Injunction proceedings were begun in the superior court today in an effort to restrain officers of the Modern Woodmen of America from submitting to members the question of repealing by-law adopted last January, providing for a new and increased table of insurance rates and assessments.

The constitutionality of the statute provided by the state legislature last May amending the state insurance act, under which the proposed referendum to members is to be taken, is attacked in the bill. A court order declaring this amendment void is asked by the plaintiff in the suit.

Addison Jones, a member of the Modern Woodmen organization since 1889, is named as plaintiff in the suit.

GAUVIN WINS OVER LEWIS.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 8.—Tommy Gavigan of Cleveland tonight won a decision over Willie Lewis, of New York, after 12 rounds of hard fighting. Gavigan earned his victory by cleverness and the way he carried his fight to Lewis.

In the eighth Lewis went to his knees claiming he was hit low, but his claim was not allowed. The men fought at 158 pounds.

REPORT MASSACRE OF TURKS.

Vienna, Oct. 8.—A massacre of Turks has occurred at Turtukal, in Bulgaria, near the Roumanian frontier, according to a despatch from Olinitza to the Neues Wiener Tagblatt. It is alleged that armed Bulgarians attacked the Turkish quarter of the town at night, pillaged the houses and massacred the inhabitants, not sparing even women and children. Only a few Turks escaped across the Roumanian border.

KILLS GIRL AND SUICIDES.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 8.—J. H. Bartley, said to be the son of a very wealthy family of New Bristol, Mass., shot and killed Miss Louise Gellines of Boston and then killed himself. Bartley was awaiting action of the federal grand jury on a charge of white slavery, which Miss Gellines filed against him several months ago after he had made an attempt to kill her.

WILSON REPLIES TO COLONEL'S REQUEST

REITERATED THAT STEEL COR-PORATION IS BEHIND PARTY.

Says He Was Not Thinking About
Money When He Made Assertion—
Charges That Roosevelt Program
Is "Not Progressive in All Its Fundamentals."

Kansas City, Oct. 8.—Governor Woodrow Wilson in his speech, at Topeka, Kans., and here to night replied to Col. Roosevelt's request at Albany, N. Y., last night that the Democratic nominee prove or retract the declaration that the "United States Steel corporation" is behind the third party program for regulating trusts. The governor reiterated that the steel corporation was "behind the third party program in thought," and added that he knew nothing of any financial support. The governor amplified his position and made a new attack on the new tariff policies of both his opponents.

"I understand from the newspapers," said Governor Wilson, in his Topeka speech, "that Mr. Roosevelt was distressed by my suggestion the other day that the United States Steel corporation was back of his plan for controlling the trusts."

Did Not Mean Money.
"He interpreted my remarks to mean that they were supporting him with their money. I was not thinking about money. I don't know whether they are supporting him with their money or not; it does not make any difference. What I meant was they are supporting him with their thought, and their thought is not correct. I meant and I say again that the kind of control which he proposes is the kind of control that the United States Steel corporation wants."

"I am perfectly willing to admit that they think it is best for the country. My point is that this is a method conceived from the point of view of the very men who are to be in control and that that is just the wrong point of view from which to conceive it."

The governor charged that the Roosevelt program was "not progressive at all in its fundamentals," and remarked that Bert H. Gary, head of the steel corporation and George W. Perkins, a director, suggested the plan of governmental control of trusts.

"Wants to Patent Inside."
"And if Mr. Roosevelt," the governor said, "is willing to have Mr. Perkins suggest how the corporations ought to be regulated they will not be willing to take suggestions from the same quarter as to the details of the regulation. We have an inside to our government, and an outside. Mr. Roosevelt wants to patent the inside. He says it is a good enough inside for him, provided he can use it for the people of the United States for I am not aspersing Mr. Roosevelt's motives."

"I have nothing to do with them; they are postponed until the judgment day. But if he is allowed to patent the present processes of industry in this country and direct them with regard to the way in which they treat the United States then he will see his old classifications realized, for he used to tell us there were good trusts and bad trusts; and he will guarantee to use that all trusts will be good. I dare say that he believes what he says, but in spite of his extraordinary capacity, I do not believe he can play providence to the human race, quite so successfully as that, and I am strengthened in that doubt by the fact that they have fooled him on one or two notable occasions already."

Will Not Admit He Was Fooled.
"He will not admit that he was fooled, but it is evident that he was taken into camp, as any man might be taken into camp who does not understand the whole business of the United States. I certainly do not; and if men experienced in these things come to me and declare upon their honor that so and so has to be done in order to avoid catastrophe, I have no knowledge sufficient to match their information. I am not blaming a man because he has been taken into camp, but I do blame him for proposing to perpetuate an arrangement which will make it dangerous lest he should be taken into camp again."

Champ Clark and Governor Wilson appeared together in public at Convention hall for the first time since the latter won the Democratic nomination. A tremendous crowd gave both men a thundering ovation. Speaker Clark, in introducing Governor Wilson, praised the character of the nominee and called him "the twenty-seventh president of the United States." The governor in reply said he was glad to "stand shoulder to shoulder with the great speaker of the national house of representatives."

The governor left at 10 o'clock for Springfield, Ill., and St. Louis where he will speak to-morrow.

JONES BESTS WHITE.

New York, Oct. 8.—Willie Jones of Brooklyn had a shade the better of Jack White of Chicago in a ten-round bout here tonight. The men weighed 126 pounds.

Constantinople, Oct. 8.—The council of ministers has designated Reichard Pasha and Asima Bey of sign the peace preliminaries with Italy.

LONG ADDRESS IS COMPLETED

DISTRICT ATTORNEY FINISHES OPENING STATEMENT.

Lawyers For Accused Dynamiters
Outline Defense For Coming Trial
—Opening Address Covers Five Days for Delivery.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 8.—What the defense will be in the trial of the 5 men accused by the government of complicity in the "dynamite conspiracy" was outlined before the jury today by William N. Harding, attorney for the defendants.

Mr. Harding said at the outset it would be shown that the executive board of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers never appropriated a dollar to be used for dynamiting. He asked the jury to suspend judgment until after the witnesses had testified. If any one connected with the union diverted the funds for any illegal purpose, the guilty persons, he said, it would be shown, were not among the present defendants.

"When you have heard all the testimony," said Mr. Harding, "we think you will have concluded that about three men were engaged in the nefarious work of dynamiting, and that those three men already have pleaded guilty."

Referring to letters written by Frank M. Ryan, president of the Iron Workers' union to "business agents" which the government quoted as showing that "jobs" was the term used to designate explosion against employers of non-union labor, Mr. Harding said it would be shown that "jobs" meant only new work which offered opportunity for union men to get work. He added it would be upon the very letters which the government quoted in the indictments that the defense expected to rest its case.

Mr. Harding once became so vehement in answering District Attorney Charles W. Miller that Judge Anderson interposed.

"The court will make allowances for your enthusiasm for the defendants, but it is not necessary for you to split the ears of the jurors in an opening statement."

The district attorney had just completed an address to the jury of 23 hours, covering five days. In concluding he described the arrests of J. B. McNamara and Orrie E. McManigal at Detroit saying that while in the hands of detectives, McNamara had offered first $5,000 and then $30,000 if they would free him.

"McNamara said it was no use to arrest him, for behind him he had the Iron Workers' union, and behind the union, the American Federation of Labor," said Mr. Miller. "He said he would raise $50,000 and Employ Clarence S. Darrow to defend him. But McManigal confessed and McNamara did not get off."

OFFICERS RATIFY ACTS OF DIRECTORS

Salary Limit to be Raised From $1,900 to $2,500—Tearney Re-elected President.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Officials of the Three Eye baseball league met here today to ratify the acts of the board of directors at their meeting yesterday. The order that the salary limit be raised to $2,500 from $1,900 was approved as were the re-election of President Tearney and Vice-president Hayes and the proposition to challenge Class B teams for post-season games for the western minor league championship. The season of 1912 was the most prosperous the league has ever enjoyed, according to the reports, with Davenport leading in that respect.

SUICIDES IN PARK.

Chicago Man Who Had Been Living on Grain Takes Life in Park.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Jacob Karnatt, 49 years old, committed suicide here to night by drinking poison while seated on a park bench where many persons were passing. Police found in his pocket a summons to appear to answer to a charge of failing to support his children.

Investigation revealed that Karnatt had been sleeping in an empty stall and living on raw grain that he took from the horse's manger.

It is stated that Karnatt at one time was prosperous, but for several years had been too ill to work. His wife was forced to support the family, but she died a few weeks ago in the county hospital of typhoid fever. Two daughters were taken ill soon after with the same disease and are now in the county hospital. Three younger children are in a juvenile home.

SEARCH PROVES FRUITLESS.

Alton, Ill., Oct. 8.—Searching investigation by city and county officers has failed to uncover the mystery of the shooting Sunday afternoon of Alfred Davis of this city on Sunny Side farm, owned by Mrs. Ella Culver Voorhees and situated a few miles from this city. Davis was killed by two loads from a shotgun as he was gathering nuts on Mrs. Voorhees' farm. He was shot from ambush and only saved from death by the barking of his dog, which attacked rescuers as he was lying bleeding and unconscious. Neither he nor Mrs. Voorhees can account for the shooting.

TURK GOVERNMENT GIVEN BALKAN WAR DECLARATION

TURKISH COUNSEL FOR MONTENEGRO PRESENTS NOTE TO THE PORTE

Epistle Is Accepted As Declaration Of War—
Constantinople Controlled By Martial Law—
State Of Siege Prevails—Rumored That Montenegro Was Used As Cats Paw By Other Balkan States To Forestall European Intervention

Constantinople, Oct. 8.—Prior to receiving his passports from the Turkish government, the Montenegrin charge d'affaires, M. Piamenatz handed the following note in behalf of his government to the Porte:

"I regret that Montenegro has exhausted without avail all amicable means of settling the numerous misunderstandings and conflicts which have constantly arisen with the Ottoman empire. With the authorization of King Nicholas II., I have the honor to inform you that from today the government of Montenegro ceases all relations with the Ottoman empire, leaving it to the arms of the Montenegrins to secure recognition of their rights and the rights which have been ignored for centuries of their brothers in the Ottoman empire."

"I am leaving Constantinople. The royal government will hand his passports to the Ottoman representative at Cetinje."

Constantinople Besieged.
Shortly after the presentation of the note, which was accepted as a declaration of war, a council of war was held at the grand vizierate. The session continued late into the night. The noted General Mahmoud Scheffer Pascha, who commanded the constitutional army and was formerly minister of war, was present. The city is patrolled by strong detachments of cavalry and infantry. A state of siege prevails and there is much excitement, but no demonstrations are permitted. M. Piamenatz received instructions Sunday to declare war today, which, according to the Russian calendar is the King of Montenegro's birthday.

The Turkish view, as expressed by officials is that Turkey was ready to enter into negotiations about the frontier dispute with Montenegro, and hence, Montenegro's complaint on this score was a mere pretext to precipitate a conflict before the powers were able to intervene.

Berana Is Attacked.
Montenegrin forces, early this morning attacked Berana, which at noon was completely surrounded. The Skirmishers also are reported on the Serbian frontier and with Greek bands in the neighborhood of Diska. An exchange of shots also has occurred near Djumabala on the Bulgarian frontier.

The opinion is deepening here that Montenegro was used as a cat's paw by the other Balkan states in order to forestall European intervention.

Late tonight the Bulgarian, Serbian and Greek ministers were still without instructions from their governments, but their baggage was packed in the expectation of a rupture at any moment. They all scout the idea that diplomatic pressure will now be able to avert war.

The universal belief is that only the occupation of Serbia and Bulgaria by Austria and Russia would serve the purpose but such a contingency is considered out of question.

General Out-Break Soon.
Paris, Oct. 8.—A general conflagration in the Balkans is expected by officials here within 48 hours. Montenegro's declaration of war today against Turkey is regarded merely as the beginning. It is believed that the other units in the Balkan coalition will follow suit as soon as the mobilization of their armies is complete. There is only a faint hope now that the representations of the powers will avert general hostilities.

Montenegro's move is considered in Paris to be part of a pre-arranged plan. It is asserted that Greece was first selected by the Balkan confederation to force the issue and inaugurate the war, but Greece declined to accept responsibility for starting the flame of battle. Montenegro was then picked. She had a long standing quarrel with Turkey over the boundary question and Turkey's refusal to grant satisfaction was seized upon as justification for Montenegro's resort to arms. A prominent diplomat said tonight:

"It looks as if our fine European diplomacy had been beaten by the cleverness of the Balkan states. The states have grown weary of Ottoman promises. Turkey's recent decision to inaugurate reforms are considered unsatisfactory and the slowness and hesitancy of certain powers to join in urgent intervention has led the Balkan peoples to feel that the battlefield was the only sure means of exacting what they felt to be justice."

It is not doubted here that cooler heads in Bulgaria have been against the war from the start, but popular excitement is at such a high pitch that the country will practically be driven to war to satisfy public opinion. In the failure of intervention every fibre of energy will be exerted by the great powers to prevent the war flame from engulfing Europe. It is realized that all depends on the eventual attitude of Austria, which, according to late advices, has already mobilized four army corps—in Croatia, Bosnia, Herzegovina, and Southern Hungary—and stands ready to occupy the Sanjak of Novi Pazar, should this coveted strategic territory be menaced by the Serbians and Montenegrins. A letter received in Paris by a brother of a Bulgarian captain now at the front tells of the unanimity of Bulgarians in favor of war, and concludes with the opinion that they would be soon before the walls of Adrianople.

Without doubt it will be another terrible Mukden," the message adds. "But if 100,000 of us fall at Adrianople, 300,000 will remain to march on Constantinople."

Concentrating Troops.
Paris, Oct. 8. The concentration of troops in Bulgaria is almost complete and it is expected that strategic points on the frontier in the vicinity of Harmanli and Kirk-Kiliseh and other places will be occupied tomorrow by Bulgarian troops, possibly producing skirmishes between them and Turkish advance posts. It is reported that King Ferdinand may leave for the frontier tonight.

PROMISE OWNERS AND AGENTS IMMUNITY

Wayman Makes Promise on Condition
That They Will Evict Their Tenants.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Owners and agents of property used for immoral purposes were promised immunity today by State's Attorney Wayman if they would evict their tenants. This action would relieve the courts of the hundreds of cases now pending before them as a result of the wholesale raids in the vice district. Mr. Wayman said that his purpose to stamp out organized vice in Cook county would be accomplished without prosecution if possible. Letters notifying owners that they must evict their illegal tenants or be prosecuted were sent out today from his office.

Harrison B. Riley and Joseph M. Dull, millionaire heads of the Chicago Title and Trust company, were freed of the charge today when information brought to the prosecutor's office showed that the house in question is owned by another Chicago millionaire. This man will be required to answer for the nature of the business conducted on his property.

The segregated vice district section is wanted by the railroads which pass through it for yards and practically all the old buildings will be razed at an early date, it is probable, if the place is emptied.

The Chicago & Eastern Illinois, the Monon, the Wabash, the Erie, the Western Indiana and the Grand Trunk are the railroads which have long desired to make use of the land, it is stated.

FINED FOR SPEEDING.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—H. M. Higginbotham, son of Harlow Higginbotham, president of the Chicago World's Fair commission, was fined $100 and costs here today in the speeders' court. A policeman said that he was running his automobile 60 miles an hour through a downtown park. "Not at all," said Higginbotham. "I was running forty miles an hour, no more than that."

He said he wanted to get to his garage before his gasoline gave out but the excuse was not accepted.

WEATHER INDICATIONS AND TEMPERATURES

Washington, Oct. 8.—For Illinois: Rain Wednesday and probably Thursday; colder Thursday or Thursday night, moderate southeast and south winds shifting to northwest Thursday.

STATE POSTMASTERS HERE IN CONVENTION

SIXTH ANNUAL SESSION OPENED TUESDAY MORNING.

One Hundred and Ten Officials Registered and Others Will Come Today—Figures Given on Growth of Postal Banks—Many Themes of Interest to Postmaster Discussed—First Assistant Postmaster General Will Make Address Today.

One hundred and ten postmasters were registered in Jacksonville Tuesday for the sixth annual convention of the Illinois Association of Postmasters and a good many more will arrive this morning. D. A. Campbell, postmaster of Chicago is the presiding officer and H. D. Hemmens, postmaster at Elgin is the secretary. Two business sessions were held at the court house during the day and in the evening a reception was tendered the visitors at Illinois Woman's college. Gov. Deussen who was expected for an address in the afternoon could not be present but will probably come today. H. C. Granfield, first assistant postmaster general was also scheduled for an address but failed to reach the city in time. However he will be present at the morning session today. The postmasters make up a very imposing body of citizens, representing as they do important government interests in Illinois and it is worth while to have them as guests of Jacksonville. While the addresses and discussions are to a degree technical there are many things talked about in which the public would be interested and the session today will have a good deal of public interest about it. Some facts about the sessions Tuesday are as follows:

Morning Session.

A fine appearing body of men assembled at the court house yesterday morning to attend the sixth annual convention of the Illinois Association of Postmasters. It is certain that the mails in the state are in the hands of capable men if we may judge by the appearance of the men who compose this association. President D. A. Campbell of Chicago called the gathering to order and requested Rev. J. N. Miller of Grace church to offer prayer, which the gentleman did most acceptably. The chair then introduced Mayor George W. Davis of the city, who gave the address of welcome, saying in brief:

"It is with great pleasure that I welcome to this body of men to our city. We are proud of our beautiful city and we feel that it is with good reason and I say it in spite of the fact that my friend, W. A. Hutchinson, is here from Oak Park, for we think we have the most beautiful place in the country. This association strongly appeals to me. When I was city clerk the clerks and city attorneys tried to organize and maintain an association, but it fell through and I understand this is your sixth year. There are four things every average man thinks he can do. Run a city, a theatre, a postoffice and a newspaper. I have had some part in three of these and know the difficulties attending the work. I have no doubt you will find plenty of people in Jacksonville who think they can give Mr. Reeve many valuable suggestions regarding the failures of the postoffice here and you all have the same and I know too that it is an arduous task."

"I trust you will find Jacksonville a pleasant place and if you fail to see anything you want, just let me know and you shall have it. If you want an automobile or anything else, you have only to send me word and it is yours. Again, Mr. Chairman of the association, I bid you a cordial welcome to our beautiful city."

The response was by Ozias Riley postmaster at Champaign. The next on the program was a fine paper by W. A. Hutchinson of Oak Park on the British post and parcels post.

Last summer the gentleman spent some time in London, had a letter to the head of the department and was treated with great courtesy and received full permission to visit the various offices and make a full study of the working of the system in the great city of London especially and to some extent throughout the kingdom.

A few thoughts offered by him are offered.

London is divided into eleven districts and each has a head, to whom the various postmasters report and the heads in turn report to the head of the department. The offices exchange with each other and it greatly facilitates delivery. In London last year there were five million letters posted and three millions of them were for city delivery within an area of 240 square miles, with 19 the longest in distance. In the latter department are 25,000 men employed and in the telegraph and telephone service 5,000. The telegraph is very much used and the rates are cheap, 12 cents for 12 words anywhere in the kingdom. The postmaster general had visited our country and was loud in his praise of what he saw and said he had adopted several of the things he saw in the Chicago office.

I visited one of the large London offices and said to be the best in the world in many respects and was pleased with the management. The parcels post is a separate department and does a huge business. It delivers all manner of goods from the store to the rural districts and in turn brings to the people all manner of produce from the country. One lady whom I met got her meat from a distance of 600 miles and said it hardly ever failed her. The department handled thirty-five million parcels in 1911. The railroads act 55 per cent of the postage paid but in some directions they run a motor service at night 100 miles for morning delivery. The limit of weight is 11 pounds, while in Germany it is 22 and the rates in various European lands are quite low.

Mail distributors begin at nine-shillings a week, some less than $5 dollars, and others get a pound a week and the maximum for the paid men is 60 shillings or a little less than $15 dollars a week. The lowest paid men have free medical service, a vacation of fourteen days a year with pay, and a uniform supplied by the department. There are in all in London 11,500 carriers of whom 8,500 are regular and the others substitute. At holiday times they employ as many as 13,000 carriers. They have Sunday delivery in some places with extra pay. There are not nearly as many papers and periodicals passing through the British mails as with us, as the rates are much higher there. In the United Kingdom there were but 201,000,000 in 1911, while in Chicago alone there were 401,000,000.

In general I think the postoffice service is rather better in London and the kingdom than with us. The employees are younger, as they may retire at 60 and must at 65. The subject was opened to discussion. The postmaster at Carlyle said he could hardly see how the rural carriers could do anything with parcels when the roads are so bad as is the case from three to five months in the year. The farmers would swap him with their goods to be returned.

Another said the postmasters should have jurisdiction over the roads and refuse to deliver mail where the highways were not properly kept up all the year.

Another said good roads should have come before rural delivery.

Another said they would all be here in due time.

Another remarked that would be about the time of the millennium. J. B. Messick, the veteran postmaster of East St. Louis read a carefully prepared paper on the subject, Should Substitute Clerks and Carriers Receive a Fixed Compensation?

This was followed by considerable discussion, after which the convention adjourned for dinner.

Afternoon Session.

Illinois Postal Banks. C. H. Fullaway, superintendent of the division of finance in his valuable address gave the following about Illinois Postal banks.

September, 3, 1912, there were 726 offices with 769 depositories (including branch offices and stations in operation in Illinois and of these 726 offices 466 were of the presidential grade and 260 fourth class.

On Aug. 31, 1912, there was on deposit approximately $1,922,000 to the credit of about 20,000 depositories, or an average of $96 per depositor. Chicago reports about 12,000 depositories, or three-fifths of all in the state, with an average of $101 per depositor. The following sixteen offices, showing over $10,000 each listed in the order of the amount on deposit, report about $1,491,000, or over three-fourths of the total deposits of the state:

1. Chicago	$1,214,705
2. Staunton	30,692
3. Rockford	28,227
4. Elgin	25,999
5. Peoria	25,740
6. Joliet	21,388
7. Pekin	20,785
8. Morris	20,059
9. Danville	19,649
10. Ladd	16,899
11. Coal City	11,607
12. Springfield	11,511
13. Witt	11,266
14. Canton	10,691
15. La Salle	10,568
16. Zion City	10,292

The postal savings funds are deposited in 532 banks, forty of which are located in Chicago.

The Question of Courtesy. Postmaster Constantine of Aurora had the very interesting theme of "Courtesy to Patrons." He said in part:

"Perhaps in this enlightened age, as his mind expands and he takes a more comprehensive view of this period of progress, the student of history may ask himself whether all the institutions of a beneficent government have done so much to foster and perpetuate a Democratic spirit in the body politic, as the postal service."

"The anvil chorus, in the throes of buckrake fever, with sporadic energy, assaults executive manner, judicial procedure and legislative enactment, but the postal service, like a coruscated jewel, fair as the moon and bright as the stars, rests in the heart of public affection in resplendent esteem."

"Unique as the distinction may appear, the reason is obvious. The average man or woman little notes nor long remembers whether the department closed the year with a surplus or a deficit, but they are not apt to forget a frown, a sneer or a sharp retort, no matter how aggressively provoking or unreasonable they may have been, but insist and demand without the rule or reason, as an inalienable right, together with life liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, the most courteous treatment from every one immediately or remotely connected with the service walking, riding, sitting or flying; and to its everlasting glory and eternal praise, be it said, as we all know they seldom meet with disappointment."

"The patron has come to regard the service as altogether honorable, and accord to those engaged in its arduous duties a degree of dignity that has no cause to blush in comparison with the judicial ermine. May we never forfeit this pleasing, and well deserved tribute, but hang like apples of gold in pictures of silver, on the ark of our official covenant, a pleasing address, a charming patience, and the charity that suffereth long and is kind. For, after all, in the last analysis, true courtesy is but the essence of right living, the fruitage of culture at its perfection, the refinement of kindness, the soul of intelligence, and the measure of our fitness for a place in the service; for courtesy is large measure is the index to character, and certainly determines the temperament and disposition of the individual, and circumscribes as unchangeably as the laws of the Medes and Persians his sphere of usefulness."

"Courtesy adds charm to ability and clothes the smallest service with an original and distinctive value out of all proportion to the expenditure of effort involved in its performance. Its influence is as broad as the universe and its language as universal as time and space. It speaks to the ignorant foreigner in tones that thrill his heart with a new found hope of liberty and independence; while the ripe scholar, rich in the love of ancient times, and clothed with the lights and shadows of music, art and literature in its golden epoch, experiences a charm that quickens his patriotic pulse-beat, and commands his willing homage and spontaneous admiration."

Three quarters of all the wire fence made is AMERICAN. Why?

DISCUSSED STATE PENAL INSTITUTIONS.

Governor Deneen Told Kankakee Audiences About Changes Effected During His Administrations.

Kankakee, Ill., October 8.—Speaking in this city today Gov. Deneen discussed the work of the state penal institutions during his administration. Many changes have been effected in the management of state penal institutions and in the employment of prisoners during this administration. Stone crushers have been installed in the state penitentiaries at Joliet and Chester for the manufacture of road material to be furnished free to the state highway commission for distribution upon application to the local road authorities. Since the installation of this industry, 703,865 cubic yards of this product, with a market value of $457,512.25, has been produced and shipped. The material will construct 295 miles of roadway 12 feet wide and 10 inches thick, covering a distance equal to that between Chicago and St. Louis.

In addition there have been established at the Southern Illinois Penitentiary mills for the manufacture of limestone dust for fertilizing purposes. Professor Cyril G. Hopkins of the University of Illinois pointed out the value of the application of this product to certain acid soils of which there are six million acres in 23 counties in the southern part of the state. The fertility of these soils is greatly diminished by their acidity, which is cured by the application of the limestone dust.

The first limestone dust mill was installed in 1906, and so great was the demand for the product that another mill was installed later of three times the capacity of the first. The following table shows the amount of limestone dust shipped to farmers since the mills first began operations:

At the State Reformatory, manual training schools have been established, consisting of foundry, workshop, forgeshop, machine shop, woodworking shop, together with clay modeling, raffia work, sloyd work, mat weaving, etc. The instructors in these are mechanics, and men of excellent character. The manual training schools and the trade school at this institution furnish to inmates abundance of healthful work and at the same time fit them for the following of a useful occupation after they leave the reformatory. An extensive printing plant has also been established, in which the greater part of the printing for other state institutions is done.

The reformatory school for the common school branches of education has also been much improved under the present administration by the employment of high-grade teachers. Eleven teachers are at present employed all of whom, with one exception, have had either normal school or college training.

GOOD RESOLUTIONS

Those that make for comfort, convenience and economy and are lived up to—such are the resolutions to install gas in the home, as a means for lighting, heating and cooking. Certainly no intelligent man or woman today would be without gas unless they were where it could not be secured. As a matter of fact, people in the country realize so fully its advantages that they have imitated it by installing acetylene plants, which are extremely costly. However, for the small sum of $1.25 per room, you can have gas in your home. Why not see us today about this matter?

WILL SEEK FUNDS FOR PASSAVANT

Campaign for $50,000 Will be inaugurated Soon.

Purpose is to Erect Modern New Building—If Plan is Carried Out Property Will be Deeded to Protestant Churches of Jacksonville.—Rev. G. L. Snively Secured to Direct Work of Raising Money.

Readers of the Journal will doubtless recall a meeting held in May by the managers of Passavant Hospital at which time the very important matter of a new building was discussed.

At present the hospital is the property of the Association for Works of Benevolence and Mercy of the Evangelical Lutheran church and it is being operated by the Protestant churches of the city through the trustees who are composed of the pastor and two lay members from each church and two from the hospital ladies' aid society.

The owners of the hospital property have generously offered to make a deed of the property to the churches of the city if they will raise fifty thousand dollars to be used for new buildings on the hospital grounds for the purposes of the institution.

At the meeting referred to an expert hospital architect was present and discussed plans and details for a new building and left drawings which can be seen at the institution. There was much enthusiasm manifested at the meeting in question and then and there Dr. C. E. Black was empowered to correspond with some suitable person who might come here and aid in securing the money for the desirable object.

The services of Rev. Geo. L. Snively have been secured and he wrote yesterday that he would be here about the seventeenth of the month and undertake the work of securing the needed money for the object indicated.

It is not deemed wise to repair or reconstruct the present building but to build anew and while even $50,000 will not be enough for the kind of a building recommended it will be a good beginning and will secure a structure which will greatly facilitate the work of this blessed institution.

It is entirely unnecessary to say much regarding the work of Passavant hospital. It cares for the sick and wounded and even the highest rates charged are far less than one would pay for the same services at home. Prices are graded on down according to the ability and worthiness of the patient and just as far as the funds will permit patients are treated free of all charges for doctor, hospital and supplies.

Just what Mr. Snively's plan will be is not known, but he undertakes his work in a systematic, sensible manner and gets results. The terms should be fully understood. The hospital management is to raise $50,000 to be expended by itself on its own grounds for its own purposes. All the money is to be spent right here in Jacksonville and if the sum needed is secured then the Protestant churches of the city or their legal representatives will get a deed to the grounds. Certainly nothing could be more reasonable than this and surely Mr. Snively will succeed if the people of the community are at all awake to their privileges.

The hospital management earnestly hopes that Oct. 17 will witness the beginning of a campaign which may not be long and which will result in securing for the city a hospital building of which we may be proud and which will be a grand factor in Christian work.

POLITICAL ACTIVITY CENTERS AT CAPITAL

Republican Headquarters Now Established at State Fair Grounds—Splendid Statement Made by Treasurer Mitchell.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 8.—The center of campaign activity aside from the executive branches of the Republican state committee was moved into Springfield this morning. The Republican state committee opened headquarters on the state fair grounds in a large tent planted in a conspicuous spot on the fair grounds, in charge of John Gamber, secretary of the state committee, and Will Coyne, assistant secretary in charge of organization work.

The first and early arrivals at the state committee tent were farmers, who had read the letter of Lafayette Funk uncle of the Bull Moose candidate for governor, aligning himself flatly with Governor Deneen. The defection of the veteran farmer and stock raiser from his own kin was the one big topic of discussion on the state fair grounds.

Local Bull Moosers attempted to discredit the letter and started the rumor that was a "fake" and had been issued by the Republican leaders without basis. This was promptly nailed by Republican managers by the production and fac-simile reproduction of the original Funk letter, signed by Lafayette Funk.

The state petition filed by the Bull Moosers for the anti-Deneen candidate headed by Senator Funk, went to the test of the closest scrutiny of the Republicans this morning. It carried about 12,000 names, the bulk of which came from the Cook county precincts where the old Jones-Merriam organization was strong in the majority primaries. The down state names were comparatively few and from scattering counties. Not more than 40 of the 102 counties are represented in the list of petitioners. In some of the legislative districts, the number of names affixed is admittedly below the number required by the statute, and steps will be taken at once to disqualify from the official list of nominees in the office of Secretary of State Doyle the would-be legislators whose petitions are "shy" for any reason whatever.

The politicians began arriving early in the morning and it appears probable that the Republican love-feast Thursday will be much the biggest event of the week. In spite of the much advertised visit of Roosevelt, which has been called off.

Senator Theodore E. Burton of Ohio will be the speaker representing the Republican national committee on Republican day—big Thursday. He will discuss the tariff issue from the Coliseum platform at noon with Governor Deneen and the Republican state candidates. The love feast proper is to be held at night in the hall of the house of representatives.

State Treasurer Edward E. Mitchell offered a striking exhibit of Republican good government at Springfield when he filed his report on the first of the month. Treasurer Mitchell turned into the state treasury a total of $146,000 as interest on public funds for the 21 months during which he had been in office. He also turned in $13,000 which he had succeeded in recovering from the Charles W. Spaulding claim, which had been marked "N. G." as a result of the final clean up of the former treasurer of the University of Illinois under the Altgeld administration. But the big item was the increase of $2,570,000 in the inheritance tax fund, which he collected at a reduction in the expense of collection of $13,000 over the previous term.

He turned back $4,000 which had been appropriated by the last legislature in connection with the handling of registered bonds in New York, which he saved by business methods in the state treasurer's office.

Governor Deneen and the state candidates started Monday morning on the final stretch of the special train campaign. They will be out Tuesday and Wednesday over eastern Illinois, through the 17th, 18th and 19th congressional districts and completing a tour of 100 of the 102 counties in five weeks. They will arrive in Springfield Thursday morning.

DENEEN GAINS IN CLARK COUNTY

Poll Indicates That Deneen Will Carry It By Heavy Plurality.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—The poll of Cook county just being completed by the Republican county committee indicates Governor Deneen will carry it by a large plurality. It shows the governor to be strong in localities where the Democratic vote has been overwhelming and is gaining in the Republican wards where he received his heaviest vote in previous elections.

The poll indicates that Kennedy, the Socialist candidate, is drawing more votes from Dunne than Funk, the Moose candidate, is taking from Deneen. On the basis of the poll Kennedy will receive more votes in Cook county than Funk.

The poll reveals a further weakness in the Dunne candidacy. In those sections where the inefficiency of the Dunne administration as mayor was most felt, he is the weakest. Memory of two assessments of the police force does not help him. The demoralization of the schools under his board of education was complete. The people also recall that the expenses of the city were increased $12,000,000 in two years under him.

Another thing that is hurting him, according to the poll, is the antagonism of local Democracy. They remember that Dunne supported Chas. E. Merriam when the latter was the Republican nominee against Carter Harrison for mayor. Merriam now is for Funk, the Moose candidate, thereby drawing votes from the Republican candidate and aiding Dunne. The friends of Mayor Harrison have not forgotten that Mr. Dunne helped Merriam. This condition is emphasized by the poll in the districts where the Harrison organization is strong. On the other hand the followers of Roger Sullivan are not enthusiastically supporting the Democratic candidate and the Hearst papers have said nothing good of him. The poll shows most emphatically that the Democratic organization of Cook county is not wasting its energies in supporting Dunne and the state ticket.

Nothing occurred that has so encouraged the state committee as this poll. While straw votes are being taken the state and county committees have been obtaining the true conditions by careful poll. The situation also is improving steadily and the quiet work that is being done is telling.

NOTES ON THE LONDON PARCELS POST.

By W. A. Hutchison, Postmaster at Oak Park.

When in London last June I delivered a letter from your president to Sir Robert Bruce, the head of the London Metropolitan Postal Service. I wanted particularly to see the working of the parcels post system there, in view of its early establishment in this country, but had no thought then of gathering information except for my own satisfaction. Mr. Bruce received me very kindly, and offered me every facility for examining all departments of the service. He also furnished me information regarding the organization of the London service, the extent of its activities and the magnitude of its operations.

The most distinctive feature of the London Postal Service, as compared with the service in the large cities of this country, is the division of the city into districts, each with a post office and a postmaster. In their relations to each other these are practically independent post offices. They have branch offices and sub-offices under them, and each is known as the post office of the district. They make direct exchanges with each other.

The controller is authority for the statement that from these district offices 12 deliveries are made each day, and there is a direct connection between each of the offices and all the others, so that a letter posted in one head district for another can be delivered in from two to three hours after being posted. The fine local service has greatly stimulated local correspondence until now over 60 per cent of the letters posted in London, about 3,000,000 daily, are for delivery in the city. There are nine of these district post offices, the names being suggested by their location, as East, East Central, Western, West Central, etc. A larger or smaller territory is served from a district post office as the mail is heavier or lighter. The map I have will show the great difference in their size.

The area of the London postal district is 224 square miles, the greatest length, both north and south and east and west, being something like 19 miles. There are employed in the postal service, exclusive of those in the telegraph and telephone service, over 25,000 persons, and in that part of the telegraph service that comes under the direction of Sir Robert Bruce 5,000 others are employed. The central telegraph office of London is under the charge of another officer. There is also a controller of the telephone service, whose appointment comes direct from the postmaster general.

Mails to and from the railway stations and the post offices, and between the post offices themselves are conveyed by both motor vehicles and horse-drawn wagons. The motor service, I was told, is fast displacing the horses. The tube railway is also used to a limited extent between King Edward's building and one or two district postoffices. The volume of this mail is so great and the congestion of traffic on the streets in the central district so frequent, that the project for an underground electric railway for the exclusive use of the post office is now under expert enquiry, with the probability of a favorable report. The service they now have is paid for by the loaded mile traveled for each vehicle. Last year the contractors received over one million dollars.

Among the activities of the post office is managing the telegraph service of the country, which is a government monopoly, and after the end of the year there will be no private operation of the telephones. The low telegraph tolls and the rapidity of the service make this mode of communication very popular. Twelve words may be sent from any place in the United Kingdom to any other place for twelve cents. More than 87,000,000 messages passed over the wires last year. The telephone service is said not to be as good as in this country. The post office department, through the post offices, also issues government life insurance policies and annuities and pays old age and disability pensions.

In the new King Edward's building, which is the largest of the central offices, are located the controller and his staff. Foreign mail for the whole city, both incoming and outgoing, is handled here, and all incoming mail that is not pouched directly to the district post offices comes first to this building. The other central postoffice, known as the Mount Pleasant postoffice, which is used mainly or wholly for the dispatch of mail to other parts of Great Britain.

Parcels post was established in England in 1883, and the law fixed the compensation of the railroads at 55 per cent of the postage on parcels conveyed by them. The postoffice department considers this too great a compensation to service rendered, but such is the reluctance in that country to taking any action that would disturb a contract entered into by the government, and thereby take away what the railroads consider their established right, that no change has been made. But as the provides only for compensation to the roads on parcels transported by them, the department now delivers to postoffices within a radius of 100 miles of London by motor cars, with considerable saving. These cars leave the city late at night following the last collection, and reach their farthest destination in time for an early morning delivery of their burdens.

The limit of weight of parcels in England, as it will be with us, is eleven pounds. The postage is 6 cents for the first pound, increasing with weight but no with distance to 22 cents for eleven pounds. The controller is authority for the statement that every parcel is delivered to the addressee, no matter how remote his abode.

It may be of interest to note the limit of weight and postage on parcels in other European countries. In Germany and Austria the limit is 132 pounds. Eleven pounds are carried 10 miles for 6 cents. The rates increase with the weight and distance, $5.45 being charged for the maximum weight and the longest haul. France makes a rate of 12 cents for one pound; if delivered, 5 cents additional. The limit is 22 pounds, which requires 25 cents postage, if not delivered. In Italy 12 cents for one pound, and 20 cents for eleven pounds, the limit. The lowest rate is in Switzerland, where the charge is but 2 cents for the first pound and 8 cents for 11 pounds, regardless of distance. The limit is 110 pounds, but above 11 pounds the postage varies with distance.

Notes.

One-third the letters posted in Great Britain bear the London postmark. The city contains one-seventh the population.

There are 24,000 postoffices in the kingdom, and 213,000 employees. Last year's postal receipts for the country were $115,000,000, and the surplus $15,000,000.

Letter carriers are called postmen; carriers routes postmen's walks; nixies are blinds; letters are correspondence; distributors are sorters; all employees are postal servants.

Medical attendance is furnished free to all employees receiving less than three pounds per week. Ninety-five physicians are appointed for this work in London, their compensation being 8 1/2 s. annually to call for their services. Sick leaves are granted with pay when an official physician certifies that an employee is unfit for service.

The number of newspapers going through the mails of Great Britain is insignificant when compared with our newspaper mail. During the year 1911 only 2,000,000,000 periodicals were handled in the whole kingdom, while in Chicago alone over 451,000,000 papers were dispatched in the same period. The higher rate of postage there accounts for a large part of this enormous difference. Their lowest rate is one-half penny for each copy, and no publication is issued less often than once in seven days gets the benefit of this rate.

There are plenty of publications, but they are mostly distributed by news agents. The controller reports a loss in handling the publications at one cent each.

Every American residing in London whom I met spoke in the most extravagant praise of both the postal and telegraph services there. My own impressions were that the postal service, as far as local and provincial mail is concerned, is much better than the best in this country, but by the employment of many more men in proportion to the volume of mail handled.

That there are no old men in the service is accounted for by the pension law, which retires employees when they reach 60. Exceptions to this rule are sometimes made in favor of valuable supervisory officers, but all must retire when they reach the 65th milestone. The pensions are based on length of service and the salary the employee has received. One who has served the maximum number of years is retired on a pension approximately one-half the salary he was receiving at the time of retirement.

After writing the above I received the programme of this convention and for the first time saw the announcement that I was assigned to speak on the British Posts. I should have been a little disappointed, but I wish to apologize to you for knowing so little of it. I hope to visit London again, and when I do so I will endeavor to extend my limited knowledge of the postal service of that wonderful city. However, among the memoranda sent me by my London postal acquaintances, in response to my request for material for this paper, I find the general organization of the postal service of the country detailed. First comes the postmaster general and the assistant postmaster general, both of whom go out of office with a change of ministry. At the head of the permanent officials is the secretary, and it is through him that the orders of the postmaster general reach the executive officers below. So far, except for permanency in tenure of office, their organization does not differ materially from ours. But in one important particular it does. Instead of all postmasters reporting to and being supervised directly from the office of the secretary in London, the kingdom is divided into seven districts, with a supervisor at the head of each, who is responsible for the conduct of the service in his district, and to whom postmasters make reports. The supervisor reports to the secretary. The postmaster general is a few of the largest cities report direct to the secretary.

In closing I wish to say I have no remembrance of anything but kindness, courtesy and consideration from every one I met in England. This is not only true of those to whom I had letters or whom I had met before, but of casual acquaintances and of those who were entire strangers to me. The wish to be of service to visitors seemed universal. I am glad of this opportunity to acknowledge my many obligations for kindnesses received.

RASH SPREAD TO ARMS AND BACK

Eruptions on Face, Itched and Burned, Festered, Skin Dry and Scaly. Sleep Out of Question. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

759 Roach Ave., Indianapolis, Ind.—"At first I noticed small eruptions on my face. The trouble began as a rash. It looked like red pimples. In a few days they spread to my arms and back. They itched and burned so badly that I scratched them and of course the result was blood and matter. The eruptions festered, broke, opened and dried up leaving the skin dry and scaly. I spent many sleepless nights, my back, arms and face burning and itching; sleep was purely and simply out of the question. The trouble also caused disfigurement. My clothing irritated the breaking out.

"By this time I had used several well known remedies without success. The trouble continued. Then I began to use the sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Within seven or eight days I noticed gratifying results. After receiving the excellent returns I purchased a full-sized cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment and in about eighteen or twenty days my cure was complete. I truthfully recommend Cuticura Soap and Ointment to any sufferer of skin diseases." (Signed) Miss Katherine McCallister, Apr. 12, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold throughout the world. A single set is often sufficient. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Remember—Tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE FIGURES ARE GIVEN
More Than a Million and a Quarter Boys and Girls Are in American High Schools.
More than a million and a quarter boys and girls will attend the American high schools, public and private, during the school year 1912-13, according to the estimate of Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education. Dr. Claxton has been assured by Mr. Alexander Summers, statistician of the bureau, who has made a special study of the matter, that the estimate is a conservative one. Of the number given 1,100,000 are estimated for the public high schools, and 150,000 for the private secondary schools.
The American high school has grown phenomenally in the past dozen years, its development in the last two or three years being apparently greater than in the remarkable decade just preceding. Since the twentieth century opened the number of public high schools has almost doubled and the number is easily twice what it was at the beginning of the century. The most cheering feature of the whole matter for the American citizen is the very great increase in the proportion of those who go from the grades into the high school. Formerly (only a very few years ago, in fact), the high school was chiefly attended by children of the rich and moderately well-to-do. Today nearly one-fourth of the children who enter the elementary school eventually pass into the high school. The exact figure is 22 per cent. If negro children are included, and 25 per cent in whites only are considered. This is particularly significant, since certain critics of the public high schools have, through a misunderstanding of the official reports, contended that a much smaller percentage than is here given had the opportunity of high-school training. The fact remains that from 22 to 25 of every hundred children who enter the schools at all go on into the high school.
Almost equally significant for public education is the fact that by far the most rapid growth has been in the public high schools. The private secondary schools show a healthy increase—25 per cent in attendance since 1900; but the public high schools have actually doubled their attendance in the same period. To make the comparison on another basis: In 1890 forty out of every hundred high schools were private, and sixty public; in 1900 the proportion had changed to 23 and 77; and today there are only 16 private secondary schools for every 84 public high schools. As to number of students: In 1890, 32 per cent of the pupils were in private high schools and sixty-eight per cent in public; today only twelve per cent of the pupils are in private secondary schools, the great bulk (88 per cent) being in the public high schools. It is any wonder that the people believe in their high school and give but scant attention to the occasional hostile criticism that is heard. The public high school is winning because the people are satisfied that it is doing its work; they realize what it has meant to the rising standard of American citizenship.
The people have shown their appreciation of their high school in the most direct way possible—by supporting it unflinchingly generously. They have faith enough in it to pay huge sums of money year after year that the high school may do greater and greater work. More and more attention is being paid to high school education. Million dollar school buildings are going up in American cities—palaces, one might call them, did not the word suggest idleness, and there is no idleness in the present day high school. Industry, technical ability, home-making, together with the essentials of a cultural education, are being taught to our boys and girls in the splendid high schools of today on a scale that was never dreamed of in the civic life of any nation before our time.
Commissioner Claxton's widely quoted statement of some months ago to the effect that he looked forward to the time when all boys and girls would have at least a high school education seems likely of fulfillment sooner than ever the commissioner himself anticipated.

Motherhood

The highest point of woman's happiness is reached only through motherhood, in the clasping of her child within her arms. Yet the mother-to-be is often fearful of nature's ordeal and shrinks from the suffering incident to its consummation. But for nature's ills and discomforts nature provides remedies, and in Mother's Friend is to be found a medicine of great value to every expectant mother. It is an emulsion for external application, composed of ingredients which act with beneficial and soothing effect on those portions of the system involved. It is intended to prepare the system for the crisis, and thus relieve, in great part, the suffering through which the mother usually passes. The regular use of Mother's Friend will repay any mother in the comfort it affords before, and the helpful restoration to health and strength it brings about after baby comes. Mother's Friend is for sale at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Major Using Herpelide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpelide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it always keeps itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpelide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpelide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. AT THE GRAND.

An unusual interest has been revived in minstrelsy by the interesting announcements made by the management of the "Neil O'Brien Great American Minstrels," a brand new organization of burnt-cork celebrities which will appear at the Grand Opera House, Friday night, Oct. 11. No minstrel comedian in America enjoys more popularity or greater fame than Neil O'Brien, who for over twenty years has been recognized as the highest salaried star on the minstrel stage. For twelve years Mr. O'Brien has been the principal featured member with Lew Dockstader, with which organization he shared equal honors with the star. Not since the palmy days of Haverly have so many well known minstrel stars been gathered together in one organization the list of celebrities being headed by the original Billy Van, who makes his re-entrance on the minstrel stage after several years as a notable headliner in vaudeville. Van has a new monologue which he calls "Dr. Nut," described as quite the wittiest fifteen minutes ever consumed by any black face comedian in years. Eddie Mazier, an end-man and comedian of note and long identified as a principal feature with the leading minstrel organizations, is another big name on the O'Brien roster. Altogether it is a great big minstrel show.

PASTOR'S AID SOCIETY.

Grace Church Organization Outlined Work For Year.

The October meeting of the Pastors' Aid society of Grace M. E. church was held in the church parlors Tuesday afternoon with a large attendance. The reports of the standing committees were encouraging and plans for the coming months were outlined. It is the expectation of the society that further payment to be made before January on the pledge of the new church will reduce the obligation to about $1200. On next Tuesday the society will serve the supper for the brotherhood and on Saturday, Nov. 9, a rummage sale will be held in the Haxby building on South Main street, under the management of Mrs. Charles Nebold. On Tuesday, Oct. 29, a chicken pie supper will be served in the social rooms of the church. Orders for rugs make it necessary that the Tuesday work meetings be well attended in order that the material on hand may be made ready for weaving.

Mrs. J. B. Himmis of Sorrento was in the city Tuesday and left over the Wabash for Springfield to visit the fair.

GENERAL MARKET NEWS

WAR MAKES WHEAT MARKET STRONG

Close Was Steady With an Advance to 78c Net—Wet Weather Brings Firmness in Most Corn Options.

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, Oct. 8.—War by Montenegro on Turkey made the wheat market strong to day. The close was steady at an advance of 1/4 to 1/2 c net. Latest trading left corn 1/2 c lower to 1/4 to 1/2 c up; oats, 1/4 to 1/2 c higher and provisions varying from 2 1/2 decline to a rise of 10c.

From the outset the wheat market responded better to buying than to selling. Seaboard's advice of huge engagements of ocean freight room caused an impression that the war news had resulted in export business much beyond what was being reported. Particular notice was taken of the fact that in Omaha such wheat was a full cent higher, but did not check an active foreign demand for flour as well as wheat.

December ranged from 91 1/2 to 91 3/4, closing at 91 1/2, a rise of 1/4 c. Wet weather brought about firmness in most of the corn options. October, however, was weak on account of the pressure of old corn, a commodity in which country dealers have lost money. December fluctuated between 53 1/2 and 53 3/4, closing steady at 53 1/2 c net higher at 53 1/2 c.

Statements that to day's export sale of oats here had amounted to 600,000 bushels hardened the market for that cereal. Outside limits touched for December were 32 1/2 and 32 3/4, with the close 32 1/2 c. Hog cholera reports attracted some attention in the provision market, but the effect was largely offset by unloading of packers. The chief advance was in October pork and ribs 10c.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

New York, Oct. 8.—The tone of to day's stock market was again irregular and the trading relatively light, falling away in a marked degree in the afternoon when interest seemed to center largely around the baseball championship game. Leading stocks opened with general declines, following the lead of London whose markets manifested some further disturbance over the Balkan situation.

Partial recovery from the low level of the morning was shown at midday, especially by Reading and United States Steel, but strength was most conspicuous in such issues as Wheeling & Lake Erie, People's Gas, California Petroleum, National Lead and local transactions. The activity in Wheeling & Lake Erie was coincident with reports that the proposed re-organization plan of the company is soon to be announced.

Specialties as a whole were weak and in light demand. American Beet Sugar, American Sugar, Woolworth and similar issues recorded declines of one to almost three points. The market languished in the last hour and closed with no material changes.

The money market reflected the dull conditions now prevailing in the securities market. Call loans were slightly firmer, rising to 5 per cent with most loans a fraction under. Inquiry for time accommodations were light with a sharing of 1/4 per cent for six month loans.

Another advance in steel products was announced from Pittsburgh, that center also reporting a shortage of labor.

Kansas City Live Stock Market.
Kansas City Stock Yards, Oct. 7.—Feeders declined 25c last week, but stock steers held up about steady. Country buying was the largest of the season, 35,000 head going into that channel, out of a total supply of 86,000 head. Hold over Saturday was 8,000 head. Grass in native territory, as well as on the range, has been frost bitten and cattle are buying to market. They have not gained any weight in the last two weeks and delay now means actual shrinkage in weight, as well as a rough appearance, hence a rush for market at his time. This week and next will see the crest of the fall business and dealers say it will be the best time to buy stock or feeding cattle. The run to day shows no sign of dwindling, arrivals counting up 29,000 head, including 2,500 calves. The American Royal show here this week has already drawn in a good many visitors, many of whom will remain to buy stock cattle or feeders. The general market is steady to day, including country kinds. Some good Colorado feeders weighing 850 pounds sold to day at $6.75, and others weighing 990 pounds at $6.50. Distillery feeders in Indiana and Illinois bought fifty cars of plain feeders here last week, 1000 to 1100 pounds, at close to $5.75 on an average. Those buyers made their purchases here last year in August, and their cattle cost them about $4.50 then, or about the same class as this year. Those cattle sold this spring at $8.50 to $9.60, making the feeders a barrel of money. Stock steers sell at a range of $4.50 to $7.00, and feeders $5.60 to $7.50. Killing cattle are in stronger demand, packers having decided to get some cattle while the getting is good. Reduced runs at outside markets helped the sellers here and a drop in supplies generally would quickly strengthen the general market. Kansas grass steers range from $5.00 to $8.25, quarantine steers $4.25 to $5.90, western grass beef steers $5.25 to $7.50, native grass cows and heifers $3.50 to $6.15, bulls $4.00 to $5.25, veal calves $6.50 to $9.50.

Bowels Sluggish, Stomach Sour, Gassy, Upset? Cascarets Great!

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means your stomach is full of sour bile—your liver is clogged—your bowels constipated. If it is your stomach's fault—it isn't indigestion—it's Bilelessness and constipation.

Try Cascarets; they immediately sweeten the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter from the bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret tonight straightens you out by morning.

10 Cents. Never gripe or sicken.

"CASCARETS WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP."

For Dandruff, Falling Hair Or Itchy Scalp—25 Cent "Danderine"

SAVE YOUR HAIR! DANDERINE DESTROYS DANDRUFF AND STOPS FALLING HAIR AT ONCE—GROWS HAIR, WE PROVE IT

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, you must use Danderine because nothing else accomplishes so much for the hair.

Just one application of Knowlton's Danderine will double the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scourer robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily don't hesitate, but get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made. We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now? A 25 cent bottle will truly amaze you.

WILSON ATTACKS SPECIAL INTERESTS

Says Men Who Own Trusts Have Impeded Organized Labor—Charges That Same Influence Dominate Country's Development.

Norton, Kas., Oct. 8.—That the very men who have been the most successful in building up the trusts are also the very men who have been most successful in preventing the organization of labor was the contention of Governor Woodrow Wilson in an address here today devoted largely to what he characterized as "the pervasive power of the great interests which now dominate our development."

"Don't you know," he asked, "that one of the objects of their combination is to control the labor market? And do you imagine that they have ever set deliberate plans for giving the workman anything comparable in the way of wages to the proportion of the profits which they themselves pocket? They do not have to give to the laboring man any more than he can get in the competition of the market. And they do not give him any more. As a matter of fact, some of the most highly productive industries in this country pay very much lower wages than the unprotected industries. And some of the most highly protected industries pay wages that are below the living scale, at the same time that prices they are making are so great that they can build new factories out of their surplus every second year. It is one of the greatest pieces of bluff and humbug that has ever been known in political deception."

Would Widen Labor Market.
"I want to widen the market for American labor. I want to see conditions exist in which men will compete for American labor. I want again to see a time when we shall realize that the highest priced labor in the world is the cheapest labor in the world, that what is produced by brains and intelligence and skillful touch is a great deal cheaper than what is produced by the stupidity and dullness and the whip of the master."

"I tell you this, that American labor up to date, is the cheapest in the world. I can prove it. American manufacturers can compete in foreign markets in the scale of good manufactured in those markets, near those markets, by labor that receive only one-third the remuneration of American labor. Now, what does that mean? It means they can afford to pay American workmen three times as much and still undersell their competitors in the foreign markets, and yet the American workman is told that the amount of his wages depends upon the protective tariff. It doesn't. It depends upon him. It depends upon what is inside of his thinking box. And when you once get a system of regulated monopoly, then you get a system of controlled labor. Don't forget that. Narrow the lines of competition and you stiffen the lines of labor control. You have now not a free market for your labor any more than you have a free market for your commodities; for under this system of monopoly, regulated or unregulated, the monopolist can determine the amount of goods to be produced, and therefore determine the amount of laborers to be employed and the prices that the goods are to bring."

People All Alike.
"As I travel from one part of the country to the other," continued the governor, "I see no essential difference among the people in the different parts of it. The same thing is written in their eyes and it is not a gleam of fierceness. It is a light of self confidence. They know what they want, and they know they are going to get it. Anybody who supposes that economic questions and political questions are two different things is very much mistaken because these things have been so closely married with one another in our recent political practice that it is impossible to discriminate between them."

"And this gives me an opportunity to allude to something that I read very recently in an influential news paper. It was an editorial in which I must say that the editor did me personally more than justice. But he saw in me an unintentional Machiavelli. It said in effect, 'This is an honest man; he honestly believes that a protective tariff is unconstitutional, and if he gets a chance, he will upset that unconstitutional arrangement.' That is good reasoning, but it was entirely inconsistent with another part of the editorial which very kindly ascribed brains to me. One of the things that every well informed man knows is that about half the people in the United States are Democrats and are engaged in every kind of industry, and that they could unite to accomplish economic murder and destruction without also deliberately accomplishing economic suicide. So far as I am myself concerned I would with the greatest respect call the editor's attention to a little utterance which I ventured to make upon accepting the nomination for president, in which I explicitly set down the program which I thought we ought to pursue with regard to the protective duties. I said that they ought not to be changed except in such a way and at such a rate as would not in any way interfere with the course of sound business in the United States. I also said, and that is what makes this parenthesis applicable to my discourse, that we were going to begin with those particular items in which we found special privilege entrenched. We know what those items are. The gentlemen who enjoy the special privileges have been kind enough to point them out themselves; and what we are interested in first of all with regard to the tariff is getting the grip of special interests off the throat of congress. We do not propose that special interests shall any longer camp in the committee rooms of the house and the finance committee of the senate."

Bosses Backed by Monied Interests.
"Those of us who handle the machinery of politics know that the difficulty in breaking up the control of the political boss is that he is backed by the money and the influence of these very people who are interested in these very schedules. I could write you out a list, if you were interested in it, of the gentlemen, not exceeding half a dozen, who used to own the legislature of New Jersey. All that I had to do was to stand them up in front, metaphorically, of audiences all over the state of New Jersey and call the roll and their power was broken by the mere exposure."

MRS. JOHN MOODY HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Receives Severe Burns While Putting Wood in Cook Stove.

Mrs. John Moody, who resides seven miles northeast of Jacksonville, had a narrow escape from burning to death Tuesday morning about 10 o'clock, when her clothing caught fire while she was engaged in putting some wood into a cook stove. Mrs. Moody had taken one of the lids off the stove and in an attempt to remove the other lid she passed her arm across the open blaze, her apron catching on fire. "Aunt" Lottie McCoy who was in an adjoining room, went to her assistance and threw a bucket of water on Mrs. Moody. Their screaming attracted the attention of Mr. Moody, who was just leaving the house and had only gone a short distance. He arrived just in time, but not soon enough to prevent his wife from getting burned severely, especially on the left side of her body, which had been effected with paralysis, which she suffered a year ago last April. The flame blistered her arm clear to the elbow and shot up into her face, burning her chin and scorching her hair. Mrs. Moody not only suffered from the flames, but the nervous shock was intense. While her burns are severe, it is believed that no serious results will follow.

OFFICE SHOWS GOOD RECORD.

State Treasurer Mitchell recently filed his report and the showing made was certainly a good argument for Republican management. It is worth remembering also that Andrew Russell, a candidate for state treasurer has been in charge of the office for Mr. Mitchell and must share in the credit for the excellent administration of affairs. The report shows that the treasurer has turned into the state a total of $146,000 as interest on public funds for the 21 months during which he has been in office. He turned in besides $13,000 he recovered from the Charles W. Spaulding claim which had not been considered of great value. The largest item however, was an increase of $2,570,000 in the inheritance tax fund collected at a reduced cost. The office also turned back into the treasury $4,000 appropriated by the last legislature in connection with the handling of registered bonds in New York. The saving was made by the use of good business methods.

CAR STRIKES MILK WAGON.

Vehicle Driven by Peter Schirz Struck and Large Quantity of Milk Spilled.

In a collision between a milk wagon being driven by Pete Schirz and a street car on East State street, just opposite the blind Tuesday morning about 9 o'clock, one of the wheels and the rear end of the wagon were demolished and a large quantity of milk was spilled.

Mr. Schirz was driving east in his "clerk" milk wagon and was leaving the car start to cross the tracks. When the rear wheels of the wagon were in the center of the track the car, in charge of Motomina C. Weeks, crashed into it, spilling a large quantity of milk and the force of the collision stunned the driver. No serious damage resulted other than the damage to the wagon.

MORTUARY

Green.

Aaron Green aged 80 years, died Tuesday morning at 9.15 o'clock at his residence, 322 Anna street, after an illness of some weeks' duration. A. C. Green was born in Yorkshire, England, April 15, 1832, and came to America with his parents, settling in Philadelphia 67 years ago. The family soon removed to Illinois and in 1866 Mr. Green was married to Anna Logue in Mason City. She preceded him in death several years ago and in 1897 Mr. Green was married to Mrs. Belle Watkins in Kansas City, Mo. He is survived by his wife, three children, Charles Green of Hill City, Kas.; Miss Effie Green of Spokane, Wash., and Mrs. Albert Perry of Kansas City, Mo.; one step-daughter, Mrs. V. W. Sims of this city, and one brother, Edwin Green, of Mason City. Six grandchildren also survive.

Mr. Green was a retired farmer and was a member of the G. A. R. having served in Co. B. of the eleventh regular army corps during the civil war. He was also a member of the Baptist church and of the Masonic fraternity.

Complete arrangements for the funeral have not been made, but the remains will be taken to LaCygne, Kas., for interment.

Beatty.

George Beatty, aged 72 years, died rather suddenly at the Jacksonville State hospital Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The deceased had been an inmate at the institution since 1876.

Coroner Skinner was notified of the death and he empanelled a jury composed of John Hodgson, foreman; D. J. McCarthy, Robert C. Schaffer, L. Goheen, C. E. Cully and R. G. Saye, clerk; to inquire as to the nature of the death. Dr. E. F. Leonard testified that he was called to the south annex, Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and upon arriving there found Mr. Beatty dead. He testified that the deceased had been out for exercise when he was taken ill and brought to the annex by two patients, and that from the character of the death and the deceased's advanced years he gave apoplexy as the cause. Two other witnesses, W. D. Walker and Claude W. Ragan, attendants at the institution were also examined and the jury returned a verdict that death was caused by apoplexy caused by years and mental and physical decline.

Brown.

The funeral services of Mrs. Sarah A. Brown were conducted from the M. P. church at Concord, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in charge of Rev. Mr. Reid. There was a large attendance of friends, as Mrs. Brown was widely known and highly esteemed. Music was furnished by Mrs. George Deltrick, Miss Grace Reid, Spencer Smith and Thurston Austin, with Mrs. Thomas Murphy as pianist.

The many beautiful flowers were cared for by Misses May, Esther and Carrie Brown, Louis Brown, Otto and Gale Nichols.

The remains were laid to rest in the Concord cemetery and the bearers were George Rentschler, Silas Rentschler, J. A. Smith, Lark Smith, Thomas Murphy and Louis Rexroat. The following tribute was written by Miss Esther Brown, a granddaughter of the deceased:

Her body is lying beneath the sod,
With her face turned up from the earth to God,
Where her soul is now forever at rest
Eternally happy and perfectly blest.
We have said to her temple of clay,
"Goodbye!"

But unto her soul, which shall never die,
We would only whisper a sad "adieu"
Till we meet again up beyond the blue."

She is living now near the Good God's smile,
Who gave her to us for a while;
Her noble devotion and gentle love
Have added new grace to the home above.

O mother beloved, though you've gone from our sight,
We know you are with us in spirit tonight.
That your heart to our hearts is as near and dear
As if we could touch you and your voice hear.

And a hope we have that is better far
Than all the delights of our pleasures are,
For though now we see not your smile so sweet,
In the land of our dear we soon shall meet;
We shall go to you, we are coming now,
I can almost feel your kiss on my brow,
And the touch of your hand within my own,
As of old I held it, grief all unknown.

So dear, sweet mother, farewell for a time,
But a little while yet, then through the sublime
Of unbounded blessings we'll live and love
Where nothing can ever our joy remove.
Not for you but for us who are left behind
Bleed the wounded hearts that are hard to bind,
Though we know that at last we shall, one by one,
Be gathered together where you have gone.

Where partings and sorrows are never known,
Around the great white eternal throne,
In the goodness of God's great love we'll meet,
And your smile shall welcome, your voice shall greet.
Our love has been mortal upon this earth,
But up in heaven it shall have new birth,
And shall never die, there no more shall we part
Forever, but now we are sad of heart.

CONCERT IN HONOR OF POSTMASTERS

Complimentary Program Given by Members of the Faculty of the Illinois College of Music to City's Guests.

A complimentary concert was given Tuesday night in Music hall at the Illinois College of Music by members of the faculty, to the postmasters and friends who are here to attend the annual state meeting of the postmasters. The hall was comfortably filled and the program in every detail was most artistic. It was also the first appearance of Miss Parsons, the new assistant in the school of expression. Her work was most acceptable and meritorious. It was also the first time that Mrs. Taylor and Miss Beebe, who are teachers of voice, appeared at the college and their several numbers were greatly enjoyed. Miss Nicholson is always a favorite with her audiences and the artistic work of Messrs. Donald M. Swarthout and Max L. Swarthout was the subject of great applause. Miss Louise Miller acted as accompanist for the vocalists.

A brief reception was given prior to the musical entertainment in the Phi Nu and Belle Lettres hall, where frappe was served, and the welcome accorded the visitors by the Woman's college will ever be a pleasant recollection.

The following was the program: Fantasia in B Flat minor, D. M. Swarthout—Mr. Donald M. Swarthout.

Voice, (a), Leaving Yet Loving, Maizal; (b), Good-bye, Miltenbrag; (c), I Love Thee, Grieg—Mrs. Taylor.

Reading, The Defiance Scene, Arranged from "If I Were a King", McCarthy—Miss Parsons.

Piano, (a) Chant d'Amour, Stojowski; (b), Intermezzo, R. Strauss; (c) Valse Perle, Schuetz—Miss Nicholson.

Voice, (a), Since First I Met Thee, Rubenstein; (b), The Bride's Song, Finden; (c), Love is a Bubble Afloat—Miss Beebe.
